What a week! It began with the amazing experience that is Young Voices. 39 pupils from Key Stage Two went to Birmingham Arena to sing alongside 4700 children from 99 schools in one of their 25th anniversary concerts. (See photos on P3.) The children had been well prepared in their rehearsals thanks to Mrs Abu-Rish and performed in the concert with enthusiasm and energy even though it was hard work and a very long day. They were impeccably behaved as we would expect and their conduct stood out as significantly better in every way than that of pupils from other schools around us. We also celebrated being able to hold our first assembly with parents present for over two years yesterday when the Young Voices Choir performed a few of their songs to the school and some of their parents. We have also held another successful evening of discos, raising much needed funds for the school in the process, and Year Two have worked especially hard and have (mostly) completed their SATs tests!
