

Weekly News

Friday 22 October 2021

It was great to see so many parents inside the school building and discussing their children's learning during the Parents' Evenings we held on Tuesday and Wednesday. I don't know about you but we all realised how much we had missed the chance to work with you in this way and celebrate your childrens' successes.

Thank you also for filling in the questionnaires we have given you over the last couple of weeks. I haven't had a chance to look at your opinions and comments yet but we really value all feedback and I will let you know once they have been analysed what the outcomes were and the actions we will be taking as a result.

Have a lovely half term break!
